WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN.

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over forty years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment cures in the privacy of your home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands of bad cases. It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take his advice and be well.

Mrs. R. D. Monfort, of Lebanon, Warren Co., O., writes: "I have received the 'Medical Adviser.' A crisp, new five dollar bill could not tempt me to part with it."

On receipt of 21 one-cent stamps, to pay cost of mailing only, we will send to any address a paper-bound copy of Dr. Pierce's great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser." Or, for 31 stamps the same in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SCENE IN THE HOUSE.

The House of Representatives yesterday devoted its entire session to discussion of the impeachment charges against Judge Chas. Swayne, of the Northern District of Florida. A dramatic incident occurred when Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, called on Mr. Lamar, of Florida, who filed the charges against the judge, to admit or repudiate an alleged interview which the former claimed tended to incite the people to commit an act of violence against Judge Swayne. Mr. Lamar admitted giving an interview, but emphatically denied any suggestion from him that could be construed into advising assassination or murder.

Mr. Lamar said that any language imputing to him the statement that Judge Swayne's life was in danger was absolutely incorrect, but had said that if the proceedings in the House terminated in nothing it would be because the House did not understand the conditions in Florida; that he looked up Judge Swayne "as utterly corrupt and utterly tyrannical and the most lawless man in the State of Florida."

Mr. Lamar declared that he stated in the interview "that if nothing appealed to Judge Swayne, neither law nor humanity, in his own lawless career, then I would point out to him the fact that his arbitrary and tyrannical action might result in some ill-ordered brain or some revengeful brain that suffered at his hands inflicting violence upon him."

The most intense interest was exhibited in this phase of the debate, and members leaned forward to catch every word.

Mr. Littlefield said it grieved him profoundly that a member of the House had preached "incitement to assassination and murder."

"I deny any suggestion of violence to Judge Swayne," exclaimed Mr. Lamar, who further said that "the fact that he has remained in my State so long secure in his lawless career is evidence of that."

"Do you think," interjected Mr. Robinson (Ark.), addressing Mr. Littlefield, "after the statement by the gentleman from Florida, that he justified assassination?"

"I protest here and now," exclaimed Mr. Littlefield, "that no language put into public prints and read by the common people, and which urges assassination or incitemet to murder is trivial in its character."

Mr. Lamar was promptly on his feet and declared that while he did not think Mr Littlefield intentionally charged him with inciting murder, Mr. Littlefield certainly had almost blindly misapprehended what really was said. If, said Mr. Lamar, anyone used his language in the interview to impute that he suggested violence to Judge Swayne he would denounce it as a malicious falsehood.

"The gentleman's denunciation disturbs nobody," replied Mr. Littlefield, who added that, unfortunately for Mr. Lamar, the ordinary citizen of the United States would so construe it, "and it is for that reason the language does great violence to the character of the distinguished gentleman from Florida."

General applause greeted an inquiry by Mr. Gaines (Tenn.) why Mr. Littlefield did not confine himself to a discussion of the record, as he a short time before was "kicking" about it not being done.

"Is the gentleman disturbed?" sarcastically retorted Mr. Littlefield.

A storm of applause followed the reply of Mr. Gaines that he was disturbed in his confidence in Mr. Littlefield's fairmindedness. Mr. Littlefield then declared that a part of the testimony of Judge Swayne was not reported, and asked who did the reporting.

"Oh," answered Mr. Palmer, "the colored man employed by the judiciary committee."

Mr. Littlefield charged that the judiciary committee had edited out of the record certain statements of Judge Swayne which they embodied in their report.

Mr. Palmer (Pa.), chairman of the committee of seven appointed by the Speaker to prepare the case against Judge Swayne, explained that the majority of the committee had reached their conclusions after most painstaking deliberation, and it remained for the House itself to take such further action in the case as it might deem proper.

Replying to a question by Mr. Cockran (N. Y.,) as to whether any litigant was oppressed by the alleged failure of Judge Swayne to acquire a legal residence in his district, Mr. Palmer said the evidence abounded in such cases. He discussed at length the statute governing contempt cases, and said it was "so plain that a wayfaring man or a fool may not err therein." That, he said, was "where this man has sinned."

Mr. Palmer reviewed the contempt cases of Belden and Davis, saying that Judge Swayne claimed the punishment of the two men was moderate.

"I hope," he added, "God will be good to the men that Judge Swayne imposes a severe sentence upon."

Referring to the real estate transaction of Judge Swayne in Pensacola, Mr. Palmer said that no other judge on earth would have done such a thing.

Judge Swayne's court, he said, was reeking with bankruptcies, scandals and suicides, and he did not believe the Judge had a friend in his district.

Mr. Palmer vehemently declared that the statement that other judges than Swayne had charged $10 a day for expenses was a slander on the judiciary of the United States.

"There is not," he said, "a syllable of testimony, in this record or anywhere on earth, that any judge ever did this thing but Judge Swayne."

The Chadwick Jewels.

Nathan Loeser, of Cleveland, Ohio, receiver for Mrs. Chadwick, has made an examination of the jewelry held by Henry W. Wuerst, of Elyria, Ohio, as collateral for a loan. Mr. Loeser estimates the value of the jewels at $17,000. Wuerst's claim amounts to $20,000. The most valuable piece in the lot is a magnificent collar, set with diamonds, rubies, pearls, amethysts and other precious stones. The value of this collar alone is placed at $10,000.

The entire collection is believed to have originally cost Mrs. Chadwick $25,000 or more. It is stated that the customs officers have succeeded in finding a number of additional lots of jewels brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick upon which no duty was paid. It is estimated that the officials have up to this time located not less than $125,000 worth of such diamonds and jewelry. These valuables were either put up as security for loans or given away by Mrs. Chadwick. Of all the great quantity of jewels brought into this country by Mrs. Chadwick it is declared that duty on less than $11,000 worth was actually entered and paid. So far as can be learned, no duty was paid on the jewels now in the possession of Henry Wuerst, of Elyria. A customs inspector recently made a thorough examination of the latter property.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used gripe and make me sick in the stomach and never cured me. Dewitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by all druggists.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

All who use Atomizers in treating nasal catarrh will get the best result from Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cts. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., N. Y.

New Orleans, Sept. 1, 1900.

Messrs. ELY BROS.:—I sold two bottles of your Liquid Cream Balm to a customer, Wm. Lamberion, 1415 Delachaise St., New Orleans; he has used the two bottles, giving him wonderful and most satisfactory results.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING. JAN. 13, 1905.

THE PAPERS in the Norfolk district recently published statements to the effect that during an interview at the White House between several republicans of that district and the President when the question arose as to who would be the referee in a certain political matter, the President said: "O, I will be the referee." But now a change has come, if the following dispatch from Norfolk can be relied upon, and it is said that "it is straight:"

Alvah H. Martin, of Norfolk county; H. K. Wolcott, of Norfolk, and W. T. Hopkins, of Newport News, have been confirmed at the White House as the three republican patronage referees for this congressional district. Martin is a strong Bowden organization man. Wolcot is regarded generally as an anti-Bowdenite, but many republicans of the district, and particularly the organizationists, regard him as fairly neutral. Hopkins is a strong anti-organization man. When the President said that J. E. B. Stuart, of Newport News, the new United States marshal for the Eastern district of Virginia, being an office-holder, would not be acceptable as one of the three patronage referees from this district, then the Slemp men selected Hopkins. Each congressional district is to have three referees. The list of 30 referees submitted to and confirmed by President Roosevelt was made up by a general committee of Virginia republicans, headed by Congressman Slemp. In all of the districts but the Ninth, Slemp's home district, the Bowden-Agnew organization forces have been given a strong representation on the list of referees. The Slemp people, however, have taken the big end of it, and reserved in the congressional districts, as they think, two referees to the organization's one. The scheme is to have all applications for federal office submitted to the district referees, who are to go over the individual cases and recommend one applicant to the President for appointment.

Politics among republicans has gotten to be a regular business and the dispensers of political office, under the new regime, have the opportunity of conducting a regular barter and sale game, which it may be relied upon many of them take advantage of.

J. S. MCCUE must now prepare to meet his early and unnatural death for the murder of his wife. The Court of Appeals, as stated yesterday, having refused an appeal in his case and denied him a new trial, his only chance of escaping the hangman's noose is the Governor's interferance, and this, it is hardly believed, will be secured, although it is more than likely that a short respite will be granted the unfortunate man that he may make his final preparations. While few believe the cruel murder was premeditated, the general impression is that it was one of the most heartless ever committed in this State. Should Governor Montague refuse to respite, pardon or commute the sentence McCue will die upon the gallows today week The circumstances in connection with the crime for which McCue is about to forfeit his life are still fresh in the minds of all. Mrs. McCue was murdered September 4; McCue was arrested two days later charged with uxoricide; and the following day a coroner's jury declared him guilty. His trial began October 18 and on November 5 the jury brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. Four days later McCue was sentenced to be hanged January 20. The evidence against the accused was in the main circumstantial, but it was of a nature incontrovertible. The past history of McCue, his dual life and the fact that his domestic relations had long been strained, have made a case against him hard to rebut. There are but few people who give him the benefit of doubt; the larger majority having believed from the first that he killed his wife, but under what circumstances no one probably will ever know.

DESPITE Gov. Pennypacker's gratulations that one of Pennsylvania's electors chosen last fall was a colored man, the matter of race prejudice in his State comes to the front almost daily. A dispatch from Chester says the white and negro boys of the Franklin Street Public School in that city have been indulging in a race war for some days. The white boys belong to families that conducted the underground railroad for negroes during the civil war. There are probably 40 negro lads at the school, and twice as many white boys. Each recess and each noon and evening hour there are pitched battles in front of the building and on the streets. The police are frequently called to quell the disturbances. Bricks and sticks figure in the melees, and the school authorities fear they will have to suspend the entire male section. All of this would be avoided if the races were separated, as nature intended they should be.

AT THE caucus yesterday of the democratic members of the Missouri Legislature, Senator Cockrell was given the empty compliment of a nomination to succeed himself. For the first time in many years the Legislature is republican on joint ballot, so the Senator will not be returned. As Senator Cockrell was in no small degree responsible for the democratic defeat in Missouri and as for years past he has very closely affiliated with the republican administration, it seems strange that the democrats of his State could not have chosen a stricter party man on whom to bestow the nomination.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.

Chairman Elkins, of the Senate committee on interstate commerce, today announced to his committee that hearings would be held on the question of railroad rates, but that nothing would be done in this direction until after the House committee had concluded its inquiry. This indicates that there is no expectation of passing any legislation on this subject at the present session. H. R. Fuller, representing the engineers, firemens, and conductors associations, appeared before the committee this morning, to oppose in the interests of the safety of the employes, the bill which proposes to relieve the narrow gauge railroads from the necessity of equipping their cars with automatic brakes.

In the continuation of the hearing on the Quarles-Cooper bill before the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce, this morning, Samuel Spencer, President of the Southern Railway Company, made the statement that it would be an irrevocable hardship on the railroads if such remedial legislation as now contemplated does not impower the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix a minimum as well as a maximum rate. "The legislation will be welcomed by the railroads," he said, "if while protecting the shipper, i also protects the carrier, which is necessary both from economic and equitable view points." Mr. Spencer's most important suggestion was that the law should contain permission to the railroads to enter into reasonable agreements among themselves. He also said, "I believe I speak for 75 per cent of the railroads, when I say that no law can be too drastic which will prevent giving secret rebates."

At this morning's session of the Smoot hearing Judge J. W. N. Whitecotton resumed his history of the rise and development of political parties in Utah. He described the liberal party organized by the gentiles and the part it took in politics up to the time when Utah was admitted as a State. The witness gave as illustration of the improvement in conditions in Utah since the manifesto in 1890 that whereas, prior to that date there were 100 prosecutions a year at Provo for unlawful co-habitation there were now not more than 12. In answer to a question witness said: "I think the general sentiment of the Mormon church is decidely hostile to plural marriages." He also said that the Mormons on the other hand objected to what they considered interference with their affairs The women went into polygamy from a cause of religious duty. A plural wife, if divorced from her husband, may not remarry. So, for the sake of her children, she lets things slide along. Sympathy is all with these women.

The Comptroller of the Currency this morning issued a statement calling for the condition of National Banks at the close of business January 11.

Just what Postmaster General Wynne's transfer of the division of inspector from Fouth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow's bureau to the immediate supervision of the head of the department made yesterday, will effect, is a subject of interest to postal officials here and thoroughout the country. During the past two years, if the Postmaster General wanted an inquiry made in any branch of the service, he was obliged to request Mr. Bristow to have the chief inspector place men on the job. Thus a co-ordinate bureau acquired knowledge of the step taken. Under the present arrangement, the Postmaster General can go ahead without making his action known to a bureau chief.

The official vote of the electors of Virginia was delivered to the president of the Senate yesterday by Mr. J. G. Hankins, the messenger chosen by the electors when they met in Richmond on Monday. There were no formalities connected with the task.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 13.

SENATE.

Some bad feeling was manifested in the Senate today during the consideration of a motion to have Saturday set aside for the District of Columbia business, when Mr. Gallinger, chairman of the District committee, declared that he was not to be moved by threats of Senators from the consideration of a bill providing for the construction of a new street railway in Washington.

Mr. Burrows (Mich.) and Mr. Bailey (Texas), who had sugggested passage of the Great Falls line measure, resented the imputation.

Mr. Bailey declared that "the Senator from New Hampshire is not as polite as he usually is."

Good feeling was partially re-established by Mr. Gallinger declaring that he had meant no discourtesy.

Owing to the opposition of Mr. Burrows, who is opposed to the Great Falls street railway line entering Washington, consent that Saturday be devoted to District business was declined.

HOUSE.

The House today non-concurrred in the Senate amendments to the Philippine franchise bill and asked for a conference.

Speaker Cannon appointed the following conferrees on the part of the House: Messrs. Cooper, Tawney, and Crumpacker, republicans; Jones, (Virginia) and Maddox, democrats.

The articles of impeachment against Judge Charles Swayne of the Northern District of Florida, were again taken up. Representative Littlefield of Maine, who did not conclude his remarks yesterday, took the floor once more.

The trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home met in Richmond yesterday and elected the following officers: Hill Montague, Richmond, president; W. T. Baldwin, Radford, vice-president; H. H. Robertson, Lynchburg, treasurer; P. M. Brawshaw, Alexandria, secretary; W. D. Hill, South Boston, trustee, vice Governor Montague, resigned; Charles Pohlig, Richmond, assistant secretary.

News of the Day.

Every gambling house of any importance in New York city was closed last night.

Ex-Gov. Morgan G. Bulkeley was nominated by Connecticut republicans yesterday for Senator to succeed Joseph R. Hawley, who has been ill for some time.

United States Senators Lodge and Crane were unanimously nominated to represent Massachusetts again at a caucus of the republican members of the Legislature yesterday.

Postmaster General Wynne has issued an order transferring the entire corps of postoffice inspectors from the jurisdiction of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General and placing them immediately under the Postmaster General.

In Indianopolis the the republican joint caucus of the Indiana republicans last night nominated two candidates for the United States Senate—Senator Albert J. Beveridge, for re-election, and Congressman James A. Hemenway, to fill the unexpired term of Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President elect.

Notice of former Gov. J. H. Peabody's contest against Gov. Alva Adams for the office of Governor was filed with the Colorado Legislature yesterday. The complaint sets forth the allegation that the majority of 9,774 for Adams on the face of the returns as finally canvassed was obtained by means of a conspiracy in Denver and several other counties.

Three persons were killed, two fatally injured, and several others more or less painfully hurt in a head-on collision yesterday between the eastbound California Limited, on the Santa Fe road, and a freight train. The accident occurred about thirty miles south of Raton, N. M., and was due to the failure of the freight crew to observe orders giving the Limited right of way.

SITUATION IN RUSSIA.

The Russian government seemingly is about to make the irrevocable decision that prestige abroad and the situation at home necessitate the continuation of the war till peace with dignity is possible. Beyond this point, however, confusion exists, especially regarding the immediate development of the interior situation. Emperor Nicholas is still apparently vacilating as to whether he shall allow M. Witte full away, in the meantime declining to permit Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky to retire. The latter persists in the view that the confidence of the people in the manner in which the reform manifesto is to be worked out is vital, and that this is impossible if the work is to be left completely in the hands of the bureaucrats. Direct consultation with the representative classes interested he considers essential.

The lack of cohesion and alignment of the forces opposed to the existing state of things and mutual distrust of each other's programme seem to make anything approaching actual revolution at the present time unworthy of serious consideration.

Socialists, revolutionists and the other extreme elements, as well as the subject races on the borders of Russia, all have different objectives, with which the conservative liberals, whom the government really hopes to appease, have little in common; and above all Russia's unnumbered millions of peasants, although they have manifested an abhorrence of war, principally for economic reasons, and because it takes their loved ones away, have given almost no evidence of having been stirred by the prevailing political agitation.

Demonstrations and even disorders on a large scale in the centers of population are regarded by the authorities as possible accompanied by a recurrence of terrorism by those who believe the bomb is the only weapon with which they can fight absolutism. This last is really considered the likeliest and most deplorable possibility in the near future.

For the moment, however, all is quiet in the interior, the people seemingly being absorbed with the Christmas holidays. No further disorders have occurred in connection with mobilization, the only active movement of any sort noted being demonstrations at Nijni Novgorod and Moscow, both confined to meetings of school professors, who took advantage of the occasion to protest against the disabilities under which, they declared, the staffs of the universities labored and adopted resolutions in favor of reforms on the line of the recent zemstvo memorial, but going further than the Emperor's manifesto.

The meeting at Nijni Novgorod was dispersed by the police, and several persons outside the hall were injured, but none of them seriously.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was yesterday read at length in the Senate and most of the committee amendments were acted upon. There was considerable discussion of the civil service question and the provision for an investigation of foreign trade condition by the Department of Commerce. As stated yesterday the bill for the encouragement of the merchant marine was reported to the Senate, and Mr. Bailey made the point that the commission had been pledged to report in favor of discriminating duties and not in favor of ship subsidies. The suggestion was combated by Senators Gallinger and Lodge, who were members of the commission.

The House devoted its entire session to discussion of the impeachment charges against Judge Charles Swayne, af the Northesn district of Flordia.

A Dying Woman's Confession.

Zachariah A. Armstrong, a young white man, of Goochland county, who was recently released from the penitentiary on a conditional pardon, after serving half of a seven-years sentence for criminal assault, has now been fully exonerated from the charge, and a complete pardon will be issued at once. Mrs. Puss Valentine, formerly Puss Pleasants, in a dying statement, confessed that Armstrong was not the man who wronged her. When the dying woman was asked who her real assailant was, she replied: "It makes no difference who it is now. Do as I ask you, and tell the governor to turn him out." She died directly after. Armstrong was a married man and had a nice little home, which was swept away while he was in prison, and he has been done much other wrong that can never be repaired. He always maintained his innocence, and was a model pisoner

Virginia News.

Mrs. Feltner, wife of Adolphus Feltner, died at her residence in Clarke county yesterday, aged forty years.

Dr. Thomas P. Mathews, one of the leading physicians of that section, died yesterday at his home, in Manchester, aged 69 years.

Martin Hite, one of the oldest farmers of Page county, died suddenly at his home, one mile east of Luray, at an early hour yesterday morning, aged 87 years.

Dr. Cyrus McCormick, a leading physician of Berryville, died yesterday morning after an illness of several months, aged 59. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Nannie Taylor, of Alexandria; a son, Lawrence T. McCormick, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Ellet Cabell, of West Virginia. Dr. McCormick was a son of the late Francis McCormick, of Frankford, Clarke county, and served in the Confederate army with gallantry.

That there is no longer any exemption from taxation in Virginia, even under old legislation, is shown by a decree of the Court of Appeals yesterday. The Lake Drummond Canal and Water Company purchased the property and franchises of the old Dismal Swamp Canal Company, which was exempt from taxation for all time under its charter. The Corporation Commission assessed the canal property for taxation, and the Supreme Court sustains the contention of the commission that charter exemptions are void under the new constitution.

Senator Martin yesterday introduced a bill to pay to the trustees of High Hill Baptist Church, of Greenville county, the sum of $1,000 for use, occupation, and destruction of the church property by the military forces of the United States during the civil war, also a bill to authorize the appropriation of $10,-.9) to the Richmond Locomotive Works, which is the successor of the Richmond Locomotive and Machine Works, on account of a claim growing out of the battleship Texas.

The directors of the National Bank of Fairfax have elected the following officers: R. W. Moore, president; Dr. F. M. Brooks, vice-president; J. W. Ballard, cashier.

McCUE TO HANG.

As was stated in the Gazette, the Court of Appeals yesterday declined to grant a writ of error in the case of J. Samuel McCue, former mayor of Charlottesville, for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Fannie M. McCue, and unless Governor Montague should interfere, which is not regarded as likely, McCue must hang January 20, as decreed by the Corporation Court of Charlottesville, Judge George W. Morris presiding.

The decision of the Supreme Court was unanimous. The fate of McCue was contained in these simple words:

"In the case of McCue vs. the Commonwealth, the judgment of the Corporation Court of Charlottesville being plainly right, a writ of error is denied."

Unless new and decisive evidence is found the judgment is closed, and even then only the Governor could act upon it.

The refusal of the Court of Appeals to grant a writ of error was a surprise to many lawyers. There were 45 exceptions taken to the ruling of Judge Morris, but it was that point which referred to the jury reading the newspapers which was regarded as strongest. It was a point which the Court of Appeals had overruled, and many lawyers believed that the court would feel it incumbent to put itself on record where such an opportunity presented itself.

The decision was received with satisfaction in Charlottesville and elsewhere in the State.

Sergeant C. W. Rogers, of Charlottesville, yesterday afternoon went to the city jail and notified McCue of the decision of the Court of Appeals. The prisoner made no reply and submitted quietly to being searched by Officers Trice and Dameron, who found nothing on his person. Then McCue broke down and wept. After a minute or so he said: "I am not going to commit suicide. I will not snuff out this life, for it is only a matter of time anyway, and if I did so I would not see my darling wife in heaven." He added that he hated to leave his children, but was going to meet his wife in heaven.

Sergeant Rogers appointed S. E. Lushbaugh, W. F. Marshall, O. M. Wood and A. N. Eubank to alternate as death watch.

The general belief in Charlottesville is that no error was committed by the court in the trial of the ex-mayor, and yet, strange to say, there was some surprise that the Court of Appeals did not award a writ of error. The sentiment is one of satisfaction with the action of the court, a feeling which gains from the general belief of the public in the guilt of the condemned man.

The contract for making the scaffold has been awarded to Mr. Issac Durrett, who began the framing of the structure today.

McCue's attorneys conferred yesterday more or less informally, and it seemed to be expected that there would be a more serious consultation today upon the arrival of Mr. Coleman from Lynchburg. One of the lawyers says that no course has as yet been determined upon and none will be until Mr. Coleman's arrival. The prisoner said nothing yesterday afternoon to indicate that he was depending on any further step. He asked several times for his brother, Edward O. McCue, but it was supposed with a view to putting his affairs in order.

City Sergt. Rogers, of Charlottesville, has procured from Sheriff W. A. Wilson of Augusta county, through N. C. Watts, the county hangman's rope, binding straps, gown, hood, and other paraphernalia with which to hang McCue. This is the rope that had been prepared to hang John Kennedy, the condemned train wrecker, who escaped a few days before his excution was to take place, and the same rope with which the negro Spiller was hanged.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Lieutenant Governorship.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Jan. 13.—Mr. Jo. Alston Cabell today positively entered the race for Lieutenant Governor. There is a strong impression here that Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson will enter the contest tomorrow. If this be true, the struggle will be warm in the Third district.

Situation in the East.

Suez, Jan. 13.—The second division of the Russian Baltic fleet under Admiral Botrovsky which arrived here yesterday, sailed to the south today. It is probable they have gone to join the remainder of the fleet.

Liverpool, Jan. 13.—The Post has a dispatch from Tokio which asserts that the Japanese government intends to shortly strengthen its fleet by at least six battleships and first class cruisers.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—It is reported that M. Zerveress, chief of the press censorship department, has resigned his post.

London, Jan. 13.—The Exchange Telegraph Company, has a dispatch from Copenhagen, which quotes a telegram from St. Petersburg to the newspaper Politoken, asserting that Czar Nicholas has contributed 100,000,000 roubles from his private purse toward the equipment of a third Russian squadron, and 50,000,000 roubles toward the equipment of a fourth.

Constantinople, Jan. 13.—Following the example of Emperor William, of Germany, the Sultan has expressed a desire to decorate Generals Stoessel and Nogi.

Revolution in Russia Imminent.

St. Petersburg, Jan 13.—Many indications are at hand that the revolutionary reign of terror, so long expected and anticipated with the deepest fear and trepidation, is commencing. Since the fall of Port Arthur this feeling of unrest and dissatisfaction with the bureaucratic form of government has been more pronounced, and it is quite possible that this reverse to Russian arms may prove the spark which will explode the magazine of pent up feelings in peasant circles. Not that the fall of Port Arthur itself would be sufficient to precipitate such an untoward event as a revolution. There are a hundred and one reasons for the dissatisfaction. The people are clamoring and have been demanding for time immemorial reforms which would give them greater freedom. For a time after the calling of the zemstvos there was evidence that perhaps some of these reforms demanded were about to be granted. The Czar, however, instead of meeting the popular desire for reforms with hearty co-operation, has now postponed the granting of any genuine changes for the better, and the camel's back has been broken.

From all parts of the empire come reports of political assassinations, including the taking of the lives of police, detectives, tax collectors, and other minor officials. Especially in the central and southern provinces is this anti-official feeling manifest. In these provinces 56 political assassinations have been reported within the past fortnight. Just what the result of this incipient uprising will be, time alone will tell. In many quarters, as forecasted in these dispatches on several occasions, it is felt that one of the greatest and far reaching results must be the ending of the far Eastern war. It would be impossible for Russia, with her hands more than filled with the trouble at home to attempt to further carry on the war away from home. The anti-war feeling has been growing stronger ever since the first reverse suffered by the Czar's troops in Korea and at Port Arthur. Now that stronghold is in Japanese hands, and no material advantage has been gained at any point on land. The position of the war party is fast becoming untenable.

The Bishop Talbot Case.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 13.—The committee of inquiry of the Episcopal church, appointed by President Bishop Tuttle, to inquire into the charges made against Bishop Talbot, of the Central Pennsylvania diocese, by Rev. I. N. W. Irvine, the unfrocked pastor of Huntingdon, met in Reading again this morning. At the previous meeting here on Tuesday no meeting was held because of lack of a quorum, only seven members of the sixteen constituting the committee, being present. Instead of meeting in the parlor of the Mansion House, as on Tuesday the meeting today was held in Wood Chapel of Christ Episcopal Church.

The chairman and members of the committee refused to say if they would first consider the question of the standing of the committee under the recently adopted canons of the church. It was considered probable, however, that the question would be brought up by one of the committee and decided before any other matter was taken up. The sessions of the committee are held in the utmost privacy.

Stranded Steamer.

Eastport, L. I., Jan. 13.—The sanguine expectations entertained by the owners of the steamer Indus to float her on the full tide last night with two powerful tugs were not realized, and this morning the vessel is still fast in the clutches of the treacherous sand bar off the Fire Island light. She has moved slightly further up on the bar, which fact, with a heavy surf, reduces the chances of her being floated easily. The distance of half a mile which the Indus lies from the shore prevents the shooting of the life line and boats are the sole dependence to reach her. Should the sea rise sufficiently to prevent their use, Captain Kydd and his crew of 35 men may be in grave danger.

At 10 o'clock this morning the Indus lurched and now has a bad list to starboard. The crew are throwing every moveable thing overboard, including hatches, also large quanities of sugar, in order to lighten the ill-fated vessel. The revenue cutter Mohawk has sent a boat to the Indus, and the Fire Island life savers and the Point of the Woods savers have gone in boats to her to render any assistance.

The Mabel Page Murder.

Boston, Jan. 13.—James Harvey, counsel for the defense in the Tucker murder case, said that each day of the past three had been more and more favorable to the defendant. The testimony of Henry Bowrne that Tucker, as long ago as 1902, owned and wore a pin of Canadian design, similar to that claimed by Amy Roberts to be a pin missing frim Mabel Page's room, and later found in Tucker's pocket, and the testimony of coachman Connolly that he had seen a young man resembling Tucker at 12:15 p. m. turning from South avenue into east Newton street, was most valuable to the defense, accordiug to Mr. Vahey, and Tucker himself is now most confident of acquittal. Despite the fact that today will undoubtedly be the crucial day of the defense by reason of the testemony of Professor Wood, of Harvard, in reference to the bloodstains upon Tucker's clothing, the prisoner and his lawyers are in a happy frame of mind. In spite of the testimony adduced from witnesses for the State, Tucker's counsel will not put Mabel Walker on the rack.

County Treasury Bobbed.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 13.—The vault of the County Treasury in the Fulton county court house at Wauseo, was blown up by four cracks man at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The robbers secured from $5,000 to $10,000. They escaped in a cutter and a buggy. A rear window of the building was forced open, through which the robbers entered the building. From the appearance of the safe, when found, a heavy charge of dynamite was used in forcing the massive steel door. Not only were the plates separated one from another, by the explosion but they were bent and broken into a heap of junk.

Among the debris was found a $100 bill and a number of small coins and bills, perhaps $35 in all, which was blown from the safe when it was dynamited. The robbery was discovered by the janitor of the court house when he appeared to build a fire. The county treasurer is now at work on his books, in an effort to ascertain the exact amount secured by the robbers.

Trolley Car Collision.

Altoona, Pa., Jan. 13.—By a collision between a trolley car and a sled loaded with young people, returning from a sleighing party, early this morning, 31 persons were injured, the list including every one in the party. The accident occurred about two miles east of Altoona. The driver, a colored man, who, it is stated was intoxicated, saw the car starting to descend the hill, at the bottom of which is a grade crossing.

"We will beat the car," he said, and whipped up the horses to make the crossing. The motorman could not see the sled until it pulled across the track. The car struck the sled, smashing it to splinters and hurling the members of the party in all directions. The motorman was pinned under the sled. The car did not stop, so he yelled to the conductor to apply the rope brake. The car was pushing what remained of the sled along the tracks, dragging some of the party over ice and snow, who were held by their clothing to the sled. The driver, as soon as he could, mounted one of the horses and has not been seen since. A relief car was sent to the scene and the injured removed to the hospital.

Cruelty of Russian General.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—News of almost unprecedented cruelty on the part of a Russian General has reached unofficial circles here. While a review of troops was in progress at Fiedersia in the province of Touria, the onlookers crowded in, hampering the drill. General Tschetyrkin, who was reviewing the troops, became enraged at the interference and rode into a group of children, slashing at them with his sword. Four children were killed and ten others were injured. The crowd made desperate by the unwonted heartlessness of the commanding general, made a sinister attempt to get hold of him, but the general forced the troops to disperse them with bayonets.

The U. S. Shipbuilding Company.

Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 13.—By filing three deeds with County Register James C. Clarke, today, the United States Ship building Company and its auxiliarie became the property of George R. Sheldon, of New York. The deeds were executed by ex-United States Senator James Smith, jr., as receiver of the various ship building companies, which were recently sold at foreclosure sale, the complainants being the Mercantile Trust Company and the New York Trust and Security Co. Mr. Sheldon will reorganize the wrecked concerns and form a new shipbuilding trust.

The Duke Case.

New York, January 13.—The habeas corpus proceedings brought for the release of Brodie L. Duke from the Sanford Hall Sanitarium at Flushing, L. I., came up before Judge Gaynor today. After consideration Justice Gaynor set the hearing down for next Thursday at 10 o'clock. Duke was taken to Amityville. Duke did not look very prepossessing. He seemed to have lost all care as to his personal appearance.

China to Build a Navy.

Liverpool, Jan. 13.—The Post hears that China is arranging, after the Russian Japanese war, to order the construction of a powerful fleet. Sir Robert Hart, director general of Chinese customs, has been ordered to husband the resources of the country so as to allow a large sum to be spent in the direction of making China a maritime power. It is stated that China aims to have twenty battleships and first class cruisers.

Seaboard Air Line.

New York, Jan. 13.—The directors of the Seaboard Air Line held a prolonged session here yesterday which lasted until late last night, but were unable to get the reorganization plan in shape for formal announcment. S. D Warfield stated after the meeting that the plan would be made public today.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Jan. 13.—There was little characteristic to the stock maket throughout the first hour and prices fluctuated within comparatively narrow limits. No new developments in the news line were to be noted and prevailing disposition seemed to be a waiting one. The professional element was inclined to sell short. After fractionable declines in the larger part of the list most of the losses were soon recovered. In the second hour the market developed a firmer tone and prices advanced fractionally and in most cases to highest points of the morning.

Dgath of Jewish Editor.

As was stated in the Gazette, K. H. Sarasohn, founder and editor of the Jewish Daily News, of New York, died yesterday morning from pneumonia and a complication of diseases. Mr. Sarasohn was born in Paiser, Russian Poland, 70 years ago, and came to America when young. He located in New York and received his education there. Early in life he became interested in journalism and established in 1874 the Jewish Gazette, the first Jewish newspaper published in this country. Twelve years later, in 1886, he established the Jewish Daily News, and remained its proprietor and editor until his death. He was greatly interested in Jewish charities, and several years ago founded the Hebrew Sheltering House in New York, practically supporting it from his own purse. He was chairman of the Board of Education of the Maczikei' Talmud Torah, a school for Jewish boys, and connected with nearly every other Jewish institution in New York, including the United Hebrew Charities, the Montefiore Home for Chronic Invalids, the Beth Israel Hospital and the Hebrew Orphan Asylum. His most active work of recent years was as chairman of the Kisheneff relief committee, which raised over $100,000 as a relief fund. Although having ample means, Mr. Sarasohn remained a resident of the lower East Side of New York, where he could be accessible to the poor and distressed among his co-religionists.

Thirty thousand persons gathered in the vicinity of the synagogue to pay last honors to the departed editor.

The Eastern War.

It is declared in St. Petersburg that Russia must continue the war until a victory is gained. General Nogi announces his list of things captured in Port Arthur, including 50 forts, 546 guns, 4 battleships, 61 other vessels, etc. It is declared the Port Arthur garrison at first numbered nearly 50,000 men General Oyama has received 32,-000 reinforcements from General Nogi's army and his forces are estimated at 388,000 men near Mukden.

Tribute of Respect.

At a called meeting of the Directors of the Alexandria National Bank, held at the banking house in Alexandria, Va., on Thursday, anuary 12, 1905, it was unanimously resolved:

First—That it is with the profoundest sorrow that we have heard of the death of our associate director, Mr. GEORGE R. HILL, which occurred this day in this city, and that the sympathies of this board be, and are hereby, extended to the widow and daughter of our friend, in this their hour fo grief and trouble.

Second—That as a member of the Board of Directors of this bank we enjoyed his genial companionship, admired his business sagacity and the high and honorable view he took of every proposition, and that we sincerely deplore his loss as a wise counsellor and a valued director in this bank.

Third—That in the death of Mr. Hill Alexandria has lost a public spirited and patriotic citizen, and the business interests of the city have lost a man whose name was a synonym for the very highest character and integrity and whose methods in business life were pointed to, not only in this city, but in all the surrounding country, as a model of the highest honor.

Fourth—That in all the relations of life as a business man, as a citizen, as a christian and as a husband and father his life has been an inspiration and a model, and his death has cast a gloom over the whole community where he is sincerely mourned by all classes and where his memory will always be revered with affection.

Fifth—That as a further mark of respect the Board of Directors of this bank attend the funeral of Mr. Hill in a body.

Sixth—That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of Mr. Hill and published in the Alexandria Gazette and spread upon our records.

The County Pool Rooms.

The pool-room operated at Jackson City under the alleged management of the Virginia Telegraph Company will be closed for good tomorrow, according to an understanding reached between Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey and Attorney Charles Bendheim, representing the Virginia Telegraph Company, and John Nelson, who is understood to be one of the proprietors of the place.

The case against the owners and employes of the St. Asaph poolroom will come up in the Police Court tomorrow morning. In the event the St. Asaph people win the case it is rumored that the Old Dominion Telegraph Company, will move into the jurisdiction of Alexandria city. A survey made sometime ago disclosed the fact that the poolroom is about 105 feet outside the city limits, but by moving the building across the old St. Asaph race track the concern will be within the jurisdiction of the city authorities. Several reports concerning the future of St. Asaph have recently been circulated, one to the effect that the pool room i to locate within the city limits and another that it will be located in Maryland, opposite Alexandria. No serious attention, however, is given the reports, and the general impression is that pool selling in this section of the State has come to an end for some time, at least.

Died from his Injuries.

John Hickey, the young man who was seriously scalded yesterday afternoon by the blowing out of a cock while at work on a steam shovel near St. Asaph, died about ten o'clock last night at the Alexandria Hospital. Hickey was 19 years old and had been employed by Reiter, Curtis and Hill, contractors, for the construction of the new union yard north of this city. The accident occurred in a cut, and when the cock blew out the unfortunate young man was caught in such a position that he received the full rush of scalding steam, and was frightfully injured before he could be extricated. A southbound Chesapeake and Ohio train was flagged and Hickey placed aboard and brought here. The train was met by the ambulance and he was taken to the hospital, where, as stated above, he died last night. On the 22d of December the police arrested John McCormick, John Hickey and Joseph Johnson as suspicious characters. In the Police Court next morning it was shown that the men were employed in the railway improvements near this city and they were dismissed. The following night McCormick was struck by a locomotive and killed at St. Asaph, and yesterday Hickey was fatally scalded near the same place.

Hickey's remains will be shipped for Newfoundland by Demaine & Sons.

End of the Transfer Service.

Theten persons engaged in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer service between this city and Shepherd's have been notified that after Sunday next their services will be dispensed with, as the transfer of cars by barge will on that day cease. It has been rumored for over a year that this movement was contemplated, and the above announcement will create no surprise. The service was inaugurated in the latter part of 1878, and at first passenger cars and freight trains were transferred from this city to Shepherd's. At that time all Southern Railway passenger and freight crossed the river on the barge. The larger cars and locomotives which were later constructed could not pass through the Wilkes street tunnel, and the traffic was restricted exclusively to freight cars. Many of the latter, however, being too large to pass through the tunnel, had to be sent over the Long Bridge. The sharp curve at the eastern end of the tunnel caused many derailments and damage to the cars, while much time was necessarily lost in making transfers when ice was in the river.

Funeral.

The funeral of Mr. Geo. R. Hill took place from his late residence on south Washington street at noon today and was attended by a large number of citizens who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to their departed friend. The services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Stump of the M. E. Church South, assisted by Revs. J. W. Dufley and W. W. Smith. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. B. Smoot, A. D. Brockett, R. F. Knox, G. W. Ramsay, J. Frank Carlin, H. K. Field, T. W. Robinson, and K. Kemper, the last two representing Alexandria - Washington Lodge of Masons of which the deceased was a member. The interment, which was private, was in the Methodist Cemetery.

Mr. Hill was a son of the late Thomas G. and Martha A. Hill, of Baltimore. Besides his widow and daughter, Miss Melissa Hill, of this city, one brother, Mr. Thomas Hill, and one sister, Miss Martha L. Hill, of Baltimore, survive him.

Knights of Pythias.

A regular meeting of Mechanics Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias, was held at their hall on south Fairfax street last night. The following officers were installed by D. G. C., Geo. W. Bontz: Chancellor Commander, O. F. Baggett; Vice Chancellor, T. N. Eddy; Prelate, C. R. Herbert; Master of Exchequer, Geo. W. Bontz; Master of Finance, Chas. M. Hancock; Keeper of Records and Seal, J. S. Renner; Master at Arms, J. H. Bellomy; Master of Work, R. N. Roland; Inside Guard, J. J. Grady; Outside Guard, J. M. Wells; Representative to Grand Lodge, Chas. M. Hancock; Alternate, Geo. W. Bontz. Interesting addresses were made by Brother Geo. Shackleford, of Old Dominion Lodge' No. 4, K. of P., of Richmond.

Car Robbed.

A night or two ago a Washington-Southern Railway car was broken open by thieves and robbed of a crate of eggs and a box of shoes. The empty crate and box were found in a ditch near Colross the next morning. The robbery has been reported to the police and they are at work on the case.

Building Association Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the German Co-operative Building Association, No. 5, held last night, the following officers were duly elected: Isaac Eichberg, president; Justus Schneider, secretary and treasurer; Henry Basder, John D. Normoyle and Phillip M. Bradshaw, trustees; E. E. Downham and John T. Nalls, directors for three years. The financial statement of the association was presented by the secretary and accepted and ordered to be printed. The following dividends were declared by the directors to be placed to the credit of the stockholders: Second series, $10; third series, $4; fourth series, $2.50, and fifth series, 35 cents per share.

Charged With Robbery.

Mr. C. T. Goods's store at the northeast corner of King and Payne streets, was entered by thieves last night and robbed of sundry articles. Lieut. Smith and Officers Lyles, Beach, Sherwood and Smith went to work on the case immediately and soon recovered most of the goods in a house in the western part of the city and arrested Edward Maple on the charge of being a party to the robbery. It is believed that three other men were engaged in the affair. Later in the day Richard Pines, colored, was arrested on suspicion of being one of the robbers.

Expectorators Fined.

The only case before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of a white man named Martin Baker, and George Preston, Henry Frazier and Wm. Wright, colored, who had been arrested by Conductor Travers and Motorman Davidson for expectorating in electric cars. The colored men were fined $2 each and the white man forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear. A white man was arrested this morning for expectorating on an electric car. Ae left collateral for his appearance

Revival Services.

The revival meetings at the M. E. Church South are increasing in interest and attendance. Rev. Mr. Bulla preached to a large and attentive congregation last night from the text, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting." The reverend gentleman is a forcible speaker and was listened to with close attention. At 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon there will be a meeting of the children. All are cordially invited.

Milk-Thieves.

The police have been notified of the theft of bottles of milk from No. 413 north St. Asaph street. This species of larceny has become annoying to housekeepers and milk dealers, and both classes hope the police will detect the thieves and that the Police Court will make examples of the offenders. The loss of the milk is aggravating to consumers, while the dealers are equally exasperated over the loss of their bottles.

Personal.

The progressive euchre party given by the Misses Uhler last night at their home on Cameron street was one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the winter. The game was most interesting and the prizes were won by Miss Davidson and Mr. David Rust, after the awarding of which a beautiful supper was served. Among the guests were a number from out of town.

Still in Jail.

John Dempsey, charged with assaulting two young ladies in the county about hree weeks ago, is still in the county jail and seems to care little whether or not he is released. There is a report that another man is soon to be arrested on the charge of the assault and that Dempsey will be released.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.—This old reliable and newsy newspaper entered upon its 106th year January 1st. May it live many more centuries and continue to prosper.—[Piedmont Virginia.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Richard Diggs, an old and respected colored resident, died at his home on south Alfred street yesterday evening.

The tug Daniel K. Jackson having been overhauled and ironed at the shipyard in this city has been put overboard.

There will be a meeting of Post F, Travelers' Protective Association, on Saturday (January 14th) at 8 p. m. at the New Hotel Rammel.

A horse and wagon will be raffled at Mr. Wm. H. Cox's saloon, southeast corner of Cameron and Fayette streets, at 8 o'clock tonight. An entertainment will be given later.

A letter from Danbury, Conn., announces the death of George W. Horton who for about 25 years lived near Lebanon, Fairfax county. He had previously lived near Wellington, Prince William county.

The annual meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight, when the election of officers to serve during the ensuing year will take place. After the meeting an oyster roast will be given.

Working Night and Day.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These Pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per Box. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Coughs and Colds.

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Clears the phlegm draws out inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts, strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a sympton of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructed the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

The big corn products factory at Oswego, N. Y., which was wiped out by fire a year ago this month and rebuilt at a cost of half a million dollars, is again on fire. Its total destruction is probable.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Long Island Railroad Company, today, Vice President William F. Potter was elected President to succeed William H. Baldwin, deceased. The election was unanimous.

Andrew Johnson, a prominent engineer, committed suicide in a police cell in Wilmington, Del., today, rather than face a charge of non-support, and abuse of his wife and children. Johnson tore a piece from the mattress and choked himself with it.

It seems likely that tomorrow will bring to a conclusion after 25 weeks, the great textile strike at Fall River, Mass. The textile secretaries today issued calls for tonight's meeting of the five leading unions when, in all probability, a motion will be adopted by each giving plenary powers as to settlement, to a committee of three. The Manufacturers' Association met at noon, and selected a similar committee and instructed them to go to Boston tomorrow and, with the representatives of the unions, meet Governor Douglas, and try to arrange amicable terms.

Patrick Judge, of Philadelphia, a brakeman on the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, while coupling two sections of a freight train this morning, slipped and both legs were cut off. He was removed to the New Rochelle Hospital where he died.

FOREIGN NEWS.

A fire was started in Sir Thomas Lipton's provision stores at Glasgow this morning and did 30,000 pounds damage.

The Irish mail boat Connaught collided with the steamer Bedley, from Liverpool today. The latter was seriously damaged and was grounded to avoid sinking. The crew was taken off.

A dispatch from Calcutta says that the chiefs of the Dir and Nawagai tribes have declared war against each other, and fighting has begun. The Nawagai have won the first engagement and have captured a Dir fort. A British movable column will advance from Malakand to watch the fighting and it is possible they will aid the Dir tribesmen.

It is stated that the British admiralty is inquiring into the particulars of all British ships assisting the Russians either as transports, or as colliers, with the view of the possibility of the delicate situation arising from the sinking of any of the British vessels in the anticipated conflict between the Japanese and war ships of the Russian Baltic squadron.

President's Reception.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt received at the White House last night in honor of the diplomatic corps. It was the first of the season's state receptions. Between 2,200 and 2,300 persons attend.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt received the guests in the Blue Room. They were assisted by several members of the Cabinet and their wives. While the reception was in progress Miss Alice Roosevelt mingled with the throng in the East Room.

The diplomatic corps was well represented. Members of Congress, judges, and prominent clergyman were in the distinguished gathering.

Ferns, palms, and cut flowers were arranged artistically about the recesses and alcoves and on the mantels of the first floor, every room of which was thrown open to the visitors. Aside from these no attempt was made at floral decorations.

The Marine Band was stationed in the vestibule, and rendered the music.

General Stoessel.

The Russian war office explains that the reason for Lieutenant General Stoessel giving his parole and returning to Russia, instead of remaining at the head of the heroic troops who formed the garrison of Port Arthur and sharing their fate as a prisoner of war in Japan, is that it is incumbent upon him to bring a detailed report of the defense of the fortress to the Emperor. Rear Admiral Dochinsky, who is senior naval officer, will bring the naval report. The arrangements for General Stoessel's route home are not completed. There is a a suggestion that he may return by way of Marseilles, where he will receive a gold sword, which will be conferred on him by the French, and thence go to Berlin, where he will received the Order of Pour le Merite, bestowed upon him by Emperor William. This, however, is not believed at the Russian War Office, where it is said that the general will undoubtedly come straight to St. Petersburg, his first duty being to report to the Emperor. As soon as his route through Russia is determined upon preparations will be made to give him a fitting reception.

NOTICE.

Alexandria, Va., January 2, 1905.

I have this day disposed of my Agricultural Implement and Seed Business to my son, Arthur H. Bryant, who from and after this date will conduct said business for his own account under the firm name of HERBERT BRYANT'S SON. I avail myself of this opportunity to make my most profound and grateful acknowledgments to the farmers of this and adjoining States and to the trade generally for the very liberal patronage extended to me, covering a period of nearly forty years, and to solicit for my successor a continuance of the same.

HERBERT BRYANT.

Referring to the above notice I most respectfully solicit a share of patronage along the line of my business, viz: Agricultural Implements and Machinery, Garden, Field and Grass Seeds.

The Dainty Ant.

Ants have no set time for brushing up, but certain conditions plainly incite thereto, as when they feel particularly comfortable, as after eating or after awakening from or before going to sleep. The keen sense of discomfort aroused by the presence of dirt incites to cleansing. Often one may see an ant suddenly pause in the midst of the duties of field or formicary and begin to comb herself. Here is a mountain mound maker driven by the passion of nest building to the utmost fervor of activity. Suddenly she drops out of the gang of yellow workers and, mounting a nearby clod, poses upon her hind legs and plies teeth, tongue and comb. For a few moments the aim of being is centered upon that act. Around her coign of vantage sweeps to and fro the bustling host of builders with all their energies bent upon reconstructing their ruined city. She combs on unconcernedly. From top of head to tip of hind legs she goes, smoothing out ruffled hairs and removing atoms of soil invisible to human eyes. Her toilet is ended at last.—H. C. McCook in Harper's Magazine.

Ocean Cannibals.

Such fierce carnivorous fishes as exist in the depths of the ocean are unknown at the surface. There is a "black swallower" which devours other finny creatures ten times as big as itself, literally climbing over its victim, first with one jaw and then with the other. Another species is nearly all mouth, and having no power of locomotion it lies buried in the soft ooze at the bottom, its head alone protruding, ready to engulf any prey that may wander into its cavernous jaws. There is a ferocious kind of shark, resembling a huge eel. All of these monsters are black as ink. Some of them are perfectly blind, while others have enormous, goggling eyes. No ray of sunlight ever pierces the dark, unfathomed caves in which they dwell. Each species is gobbled by the species next bigger, for there is no vegetable life to feed on.—Spare Moments.

The Forests of the Amazon.

According to some astronomers the greenish patches on the planet Mars indicate woodland regions, and a scientist predicts that centuries after the rest of this earth has become as barren as the mountains of the moon Martian astronomers will still distinguish here bright green spots of considerable extent near the east coast of South America. The forests of the Amazon valley, he thinks, are practically extermination proof. An average of 1,000 rank trees, shrubs and creepers cover every acre of ground and a year's neglect is enough to obliterate all traces of the most thorough clearing. A film of spontaneous vegetation soon covers the deserted field, trees shoot up and the sylvan deities resume their ancient sway.

Hypnotic Influence.

An extraordinary story of the imposition of one will upon another was told before the psychological section of the British Medical association at Oxford. Dr. Eldridge-Green said that he was talking with a patient on the subject of hypnotism. The patient, a lady of more than average force of character, said she defied any man to send her to sleep and make her do as he wished. "I told her it was not necessary to send her to sleep," said the doctor, "and added, 'You will wake at 5 o'clock tomorrow morning and will send me a post card despite your own wishes to say no.' I got that post card. It was somewhat to this effect: 'I have been trying not to write to you, but I did wake at 5.'"

Good Bread For Dyspeptics.

Pulled bread is served at several of the best restaurants, and it is not only palatable, but much better for people inclined to be fat or dyspeptic than ordinary bread. When kneading the bread for baking do it in such a way that the grain will be lengthwise of the loaf. When baked and before it is cold remove the crust, pull the loaf into halves and again into quarters lengthwise of the loaf. Keep dividing it until the bread is of the desired shape; it is usually in long pieces about two inches in circumference. Place the pieces on a rack, put in a pan and dry out the moisture in a slow oven and color a light brown.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Calif, writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

No More Stomach Troubles.

All stomach trouble is removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid. The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Erskine, of Allenville, Mich., says, "I suffered Heartburn and Stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.

CERTIFICATE TO AMEND THE CHARTER of THE CAIRO APARTMENT HOUSE COMPANY, a corporation chartered by the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, on the 1st day of February, 1895.

This is to certify that at a special meeting of the stockholders of The Cairo Apartment House Company, held at the office of said company, No. 128 south Fairfax street, Alexandria, Virginia, at 2 o'clock p. m., on December 21, 1904, which said meeting was held for the purpose of considering a decrease of the capital stock of said company from eight hundred thousand dollars to one hundred thousand dollars, divided into shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each, which decrease has been recommended by the Board of Directors of said company, and notice of which special stockholders' meeting, stating the object thereof, had been mailed to each stockholder at his last known postoffice address, at least ten days prior thereto, it was unanimously resolved by those stockholders present, in person or by proxy at said meeting, the entire number of shares being represented at said meeting either in person or by proxy, that the third section of the charter of said corporation now reading: "Third. The capital stock of said company shall be eight hundred thousand dollars, divided into eight thousand shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each. Subscription to the said capital stock to be paid in money, land or other property, real, personal or mixed, labor or service; and there shall be no liability beyond the unpaid subscription to stock," be amended so as to read as follows:

"Third. The capital stock of this company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each."

It was further resolved that the President and Secretary be requested to forthwith transmit a certificate of this resolution to the State Corporation Commission, in order to procure this amendment to the charter.

In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed the corporate seal of said company this 22nd day of December, 1904.

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE

Is "the cleanest, most stimulating, meatiest general magazine for the family," says one of the million who read it every month. It is without question.

"The Best At Any Price."

Great features are promised for next year—six or more wholesome interesting short stories in every number, continued stories, beautiful pictures in colors, and articles by such famous writers as Ida M. Tarbell, Lincoln Steffens, Ray Stannard Baker, John La Farge, William Allen White, and Charles Wagner. Get all of it right into your home by taking advantage of this.

Special Offer.

Send $1.00 before January 31, 1905 for a subscription for the year 1905 and we will send you free the November and December numbers of 1905—fourteen months for $1.00 or the price of twelve. Address McClure's, 44-60 East 23 Street, New York City. Write for agents' terms.

New York Daily Tribune.

If you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully collated and sifted and presented in the most attractive form that the facts and the laws of good taste will permit, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. It contains special articles on nearly every subject which is supposed to interest intelligent and clean-minded people, to say nothing of the illuminating and instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music and the drama. Invest $1 and get the daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sunday Tribune goes a handsome illustrated supplement and a magazine, with colored covers, equal to anything sold for ten cents.

New York Tribune Farmer

The Tribune Farmer has no superior anywhere as a publication for farmers and their families. Everything worth knowing about the theory or practice of farming is treated by men recognized as experts in their various lines. It keeps the farmer in touch with all the latest improvement by text and pictures, and pays special attention to the work being done at agricultural colleges all over the country. Besides all this it has features to interest the women folk. The price is $1 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to the New-York Tribune, New-York.

N. Y. Tri-Weekly Tribune

For those who want to get the New York news and news of things the world over and don't want to spend the money or time in buying and reading a meropolitan paper seven days in the week The Tri-Weekly Tribune fills the bill. It is issued on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of every week. Price, $1.50 a year. For a free sample copy send a postal card to The New York Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tri-Weekly Tribune, one year, $1.65; all three for $2.50.

N. Y. Tribune Almanac.

If you never examined The Tribune Almanac just invest a quarter for once, and see how well pleased you'll be. The 1905 one will be on sale January 1, and may be had from your newsdealer, through your local paper or direct from The Tribune office, New York.

N. Y. Tribune Review.

The Tribune Weekly Review is a handsome sixteen page weekly issued by The New York Tribune Association. It costs five cents a copy, but may be had for a whole year for $1. There is no other such publication sold anywhere for the money. For free sample copy send a postal card to The Tribune, New York.

Combination offer—Harper's Bazar, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; The Metropolitan Magazine, with The Tribune Weekly Review, one year, $1.50; all three for $2.20.
